

DISNEY PERFORMING ARTS: Dance

(Note: This is only a sample tour)

Day 1: Depart for Los Angeles. En route to Anaheim, stop at the Famous Farmers Market a must see tourist attraction in southern California. Visit also The Grove Los Angeles, a shopping and entertainment complex built adjacent to the historic Farmers Market. It has become a popular spot for shopping and dining, and its lively crowds and street grid layout make it feel like an old-fashioned downtown.

Day 2: Depart for Disneyland for a full day attending the “Disney Performing Arts”. Disney Performing Arts is a unique educational program for students of the arts. It gives instrumental, vocal and dance ensembles an opportunity to learn about their craft as well as showcase their own talents in a professional, positive and lively environment. Learn from the Disney professionals in programs that are geared to the students’ skill level in an environment unlike anywhere else in the world. Begin the day with a dance workshop provided by the experts at Disneyland. Spend the remainder of the day enjoying the park. Have dinner on your own in the park prior to the spectacular fireworks display.

Day 3: Depart for your second day at Disneyland, the “Happiest Place on Earth”. The sights are heart-warming, the rides thrilling and the scenery magical in this extraordinary space. Young or old, Disneyland tugs at your heart and leaves you with unforgettable memories of this special world of make believe. Spend a full day in this magical place. Today your group will not only have another fabulous workshop with the Disney professionals but it will be followed by a performance by your group. Thrill at the opportunity to showcase your groups talents in front of an audience of Disneyland attendees and enthusiastic fans.

Day 4: After breakfast head for the worlds “Capital of Glamour and Entertainment”, the city of Los Angeles. Historically Hollywood is not very old. 100 years ago it was an empty field until a religious based agricultural group settled here. Today it is synonymous with glamour, wealth and fame and is considered to be the movie capital of the world. See the Hollywood Walk of Fame, the world famous Graumans Chinese Theatre and the Kodak Theatre home of the Academy Awards and the American Idol finals. Shop the luxurious Rodeo Drive in Beverly Hills. Los Angeles is home to many well-known dance studios. One of which being The Edge. Today enjoy a dance class at The Edge. Later have dinner at a Hollywood restaurant and then head to Anaheim to your hotel for the evening or attend an optional theatre performance.

Day 5: Depart for your full day visit to Universal Studios, the world’s largest picture and television studio. You will have plenty of time to visit and attend the various shows which are presented throughout the day. Explore the rides, exhibits, and behind-the-scene activities that the theme park has to offer. Have lunch on your own at the Universal City Walk. Return to the hotel to freshen up and transfer for an evening at the Medieval Times Dinner and Tournament. This is sure to be a fun and entertaining evening. You will partake in a feast as well as a spirited jousting tournament. Cheer your favorite knight to victory.

Day 6: For your last day at Disneyland and after your second performance, spend the rest of today at Disney’s California Adventure Park for a full day enjoying the magical festival of shows, parades and attractions that celebrate California’s past and future.

Day 7: Your visit to California unfortunately ends today as you board your coach for the airport for your return flight home to Canada. Depending on flight times, you may have time to stop at the famous Santa Monica Pier and spend a little time wandering the pier and sampling the many culinary and visual delights. If you are brave enough you might even stick our toes in the frigid Pacific Ocean waters!
